Contents

Volume 14, number 1

Guest editorial 1

Publishers' announcement 4

The analysis of motivation-specific migration streams 5
I Gordon

Optimal distribution of city sizes in a region 21
T Tabuchi

Measuring political change 33
A R Bodman

Forecasting the progress of epidemics by means of a Bayesian-entropy framework 49
R C Souza

On the parameters of uniform swing in single-member constituency electoral systems 61
R J Johnston, A M Hay

Parameter instability in models of local unemployment responses 75
R Dunn

Restructuring urban managerialism: towards a political economy of urban allocation 95
P Williams

Some comments on non-Euclidean mental maps 107
R G Golledge, L J Hubert

Explaining manufacturing shift: a reply to Keeble 119
A Sayer

Response by Keeble 124

Hierarchical elimination and regionalization in spatial choice 127
P B Slater

Reviews 131

Volume 14, number 2

Editorial 143

Volatility in the geographical structure of short-run US interstate migration 145
G L Clark

Travel demand and the evaluation of transportation system change: a reconsideration of the random utility approach 169
K Sasaki

The changing relationship between local and national unemployment rates in Northern England, 1971–1980 183
D W Owen, A E Gillespie

Proximity matrix reorganization and hierarchical clustering 195
L J Hubert, R G Golledge, G D Richardson

Spatial development processes with renewal in a growing city 205
T Akita, M Fujita

A dynamic predator–prey model for fishery resources: a case of Lake Kasumigaura 225
Y Kitabatake

A model of labour-market interdependencies in the London region 237
I R Gordon, D Lamont

Letter to the editor 265

Reviews 269

Volume 14, number 3

Editorial/Publishers' announcement 285

A note on the law of 29 June 1975 to control large scale retail development in Belgium 291
J A Dawson

Provision and wellbeing: an agenda for public resources research 297
K Jones, A Kirby

Making planning more responsive to its users: the concept of metaplanning 311
J S deBettencourt, M B Mandell, S E Polzin, V L Sauter, J L Schofer

Space preferences, locational decisions, and the dispersal of civil servants from London 323
M Pacione

Estimating input-output multipliers—a new hybrid approach 335
P J Phibbs, A J Holsman

Land use in Leeds 1957-1976: two decades of change in a British city 343
G C Dickinson, M G Shaw

Integration of multiregional models for policy analysis 359
W Isard, L Anselin

Spatial aggregation in gravity models. 1. An information-theoretic framework 377
M Batty, P K Sikdar

Reviews 407

Volume 14, number 4

Editorial 427

The importance of the first round in the multiplier process: the impact of Civil Service dispersal 429
B Ashcroft, J K Swales

Interregional migration models with source and interaction information 445
P Rogerson, R D MacKinnon

Domains of structural stability for minimal-cost discrete flows with reference to the hierarchical central-place models 455
M Sonis

Disequilibrium adjustment processes in the local tax-expenditure system 471
G C Lim

Models for the analysis of interregional migration 477
A G Constantine, J C Gower

Exploring decisions in public policymaking: strategic allocation, individual allocation, and simulation 499
M Clarke, R Prentice

Spatial aggregation in gravity models: 2. One-dimensional population density models 525
M Batty, P K Sikdar

Reviews 555

Volume 14, number 5

Editorial 569

Specifying weights in spatial forecasting models: the results of some experiments 571
F Stetzer

On population growth of cities in a region: a stochastic nonlinear model 585
P K Sikdar, Karmeshu

Employment density variation in the Baltimore metropolitan area 591
R A Erickson

A family of hypothesis tests for a collection of short event series with an application to female employment participation 603
R B Davies, R Crochley, A R Pickles

Heterogeneity, nonstationarity, and duration-of-stay effects in migration 615
A R Pickles, R B Davies, R Crouchley

A qualitative method of trend curve analysis 623
A Okabe

Spatial aggregation in gravity models: 3. Two-dimensional trip distribution and location models 629
M Batty, P K Sikdar

Route factors in grid systems 'pushed over' by ϕ degrees 659
K J Tinkler

Accumulation, spatial policies, and the production of regional labour reserves: a study of Washington New Town 665
R Hudson

Housing market search behavior and expected utility theory: 1. Measuring preferences for housing 681
T R Smith, W A V Clark

Reviews 699

Volume 14, number 6

Guest editorial 711

Housing market search behavior and expected utility theory: 2. The process of search 717
W A V Clark, T R Smith

A technique to obtain accurate impact multipliers for individual firms by means of existing input–output models 739
R B Billings, J L Katz

Industrial restructuring and change in the labour and property markets in Britain 745
D C Thorns

Towards integrating a model of urban socioeconomic structure and urban imagery 765
A N Spector

A spatial interaction model with the distance decay function based on a random variable distribution 789
L Mazurkiewicz

Spatial aggregation in gravity models: 4. Generalisations and large-scale applications 795
M Batty, P K Sikdar

Economies of scale and the existence of supply-side equilibria in a production-constrained spatial-interaction model 823
B Harris, J-M Choukroun, A G Wilson

Reviews 839

Volume 14, number 7

Guest editorial 855

The employment of migrant workers in the Belgian economy: a structural phenomenon 857
F Moulaert, F Philips

A phenomenological theory of socioeconomic systems with spatial interactions 869
P F Lesse

Estimation of migration profiles in England and Wales 889
J Bates, I Bracken
